ABOUT US

Manila Sunset derived its name from the beautiful sunset at Manila Bay that evokes remembrances of home and the natural charms of the Philippine Islands. It brings back memories of old-fashioned home cooking and traditional celebrations like Pasko, Bagong Taon, and Simbang Gabi.

Manila Sunset specializes in a few but unique and hard to find Filipino delicacies such as Bibingkang Galapong and Puto Bumbong which are traditionally found in church plazas and roadside stalls only during the Christmas season. Our bestseller, Pancit Malabon, is prepared from an original well-guarded recipe from the fishing village of Malabon. Even in the Philippines, there are only very few cooks who know how to prepare this delicacy.

When Manila Sunset opened its first store on Sunset Boulevard in Los Angeles, CA in 1985, its limited menu was originally intended for Filipinos in America who have long missed Filipino cooking. Over the years, the popularity of Philippine cuisine has gained recognition from other cultures as it continues to surprise people with its distinct taste, creativity and diversity.

Manila Sunset is one of the very few Filipino restaurants included in Paul Wallach's Guide to Restaurants of Los Angeles and Southern California and Linda Burum's Guide to Ethnic Food in Los Angeles. It also earned favorable reviews from Los Angeles Times, The Orange County Register, Pasadena Star-News, The San Diego Union-Tribune, Zagat, and various Filipino-American newspapers and magazines. It also received the Manila-US Times Eagle Award of Excellence as "Restaurant of the Year".

Welcome to Manila Sunset. We cannot promise to give you the grandeur of the famous sunset at Manila Bay, but only the authentic taste of Philippine cuisine and the country's legendary hospitality.
